With your support, we will continue to bring the art of our time to Austin audiences and introduce the joy and wonder of art to more than 950 students in underserved schools.

Women & Their Work is noted for our tour de force spring parties (deemed the Best Art Fundraiser in 2010 by Stephen Moser of The Austin Chronicle and "Gatsbyesque" by Michael Barnes in the Austin American-Statesman). This year's party will also be a night to savor!

Women & Their Work is a one-of-a-kind statewide, nonprofit organization. Presenting more than 50 events a year, we have been featured in Art In America, ArtForum, The New York Times and on National Public Radio, and supported as an exemplary art organization by the Andy Warhol Foundation and the Robert Rauschenberg Foundation. For 35 years, we have showcased some of the most engaging, original contemporary art in Texas. We create professional opportunities for artists and provide enriching educational activities for audiences of all ages.
