'Large-Scale: The Painting Show' opens at Wade Wilson Art

(HOUSTON, August 2011; source: Juice Consulting LLC) – Wade Wilson Art is pleased to announce the opening of "Large-Scale: The Painting Show," with a special Open House reception from 1 - 5 p.m., Saturday, August 27, 2011 and will remain on view through September 30, 2011. The gallery will also host a reception for the artists in conjunction with the 4411 Montrose, building - wide season launch from 6 - 9 p.m., Friday, September 9, 2011. Wade Wilson Art is located at 4411 Montrose Blvd, Suite 200, Houston, Texas, 77006.

"Large-Scale: The Painting Show," features paintings by Tom Berg, Lucinda Cobby, Jill Moser, Peter Sacks, Mark Williams, and welcoming new gallery artist Zachariah Rieke.

The scale of a painting often determines the reaction of its viewing audience. While the impact of an intimately-scaled work can draw a viewer into its very personal realm, a large-scaled work, in contrast, creates an environment that envelopes its audience in the artist's vision and perspective. Each of the artist's paintings in this exhibit presents a highly individualized aesthetic, which reflects the spirited collective vision of Wade Wilson Art.

During the past year, works by Lucinda Cobby, Peter Sacks, and Mark Williams were acquired by the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston. The MFAH also acquired a new etching by Jill Moser recently published by Wade Wilson Art making it the museum's fifth Jill Moser work in their collection.
